

What Do I Need to Do to Get a Category C (Rigid) Licence?

The information below, shows you the steps you need to take to become a qualified LGV driver and the associated costs:

Step 1: Provisional Licence Application

Before you can commence your driver training, you need to apply for a provisional licence:

Provisional licence application

You need to complete a provisional licence application. You can get the application from by either following this link (<https://forms.dft.gov.uk/apply-lorry-bus-provisional-driving-licence/>) or you can all into our offices and we will give you a form. We can also help you complete and submit this form if you wish. This is send to the DVLA along with your completed medical and your photocard licence.

LGV medical

As part of your provisional licence application, you are required to pass a routine LGV medical examination. You can do this at your local doctors or visit www.fit2drivemedicals.co.uk or www.bordermed.net to book a slot locally.

Step 2: Theory Training and Test

Once you have received your provisional licence, you need to successfully complete your theory test, before you can commence your practical training:-

Theory training

We offer online theory training, if you would like access to this we offer a Starter Package for £92 (incl VAT), this price includes the cost of your theory tests. If do not want access to our online theory training and would only like us to book your theory tests there will be a £12.50 admin charge.

The theory tests consist of two parts:

Multiple Choice test
Hazard Perception test

You need to successfully complete both tests before you can commence your practical training.

Step 3: Practical Training (Category C Licence)

Once you have successfully completed your theory tests, you can commence your five day practical training course and your practical test:

5 day practical training £1,399 (incl VAT & Test Fee)

Step 4: Module 2 & 4 Training

In order to drive a rigid truck for payment, you need to complete:

Module 2 - Driver CPC case study test

The test is made up of 7 case studies you work through on a computer. You'll be asked between 6 and 8 multiple-choice questions on each case study.

Module 4 - Practical demonstration

You're tested on being able to load the vehicle following safety rules and to keep it secure, stop trafficking in illegal immigrants, assess emergency situations and do a walk around vehicle safety check.

We offer training to support you in preparation for the above tests:

Online module 2 training, if you would like access to this we offer a Module 2 Package for £72 (incl VAT), this price includes the cost of your module 2 test.

Practical module 4 training, this is a ½ day and is included in the Module 4 Package for £199 (incl VAT), this price includes the cost of your module 4 test.

If do not want access to our online module 2 training or the practical module 4 training and would only like us to book your test there will be a £12.50 admin charge.

Module 2 Training & Test Package £72 (incl VAT)

Module 4 Training & Test Package £199 (incl VAT)

Please note modules 2 & 4 can be done prior to the practical training. But you must pass module 2 before doing module 4.
